

Jaclyn Harding

Assistant Director, Division of Property Assessments

Jaclyn Harding is an Assistant Director within the Tennessee Comptroller's Division of Property Assessments. Jaclyn leads the division's customer relationship efforts, oversees the Property Tax Relief Program, and guides the division's administrative operations including the coordination of training and publications.

Prior to joining the Comptroller's Office in 2012, Jaclyn worked for Owensboro Regional Health as a liaison between administration and hospital owned physician groups.

Jaclyn is a graduate of Transylvania University in Lexington, Kentucky, where she earned a degree in business administration with an emphasis in marketing.

She is also a 2013 graduate of the Tennessee Government Management Institute and serves as the Comptroller's designee for the Health Services and Development Agency board.

Jaclyn and her husband, Justin, live in Brentwood, Tennessee with their daughter, Hayden, and Shih Tzu, Dottie. In her spare time, Jaclyn enjoys playing tennis, spending time with family and friends, and cheering for the University of Kentucky Wildcats.

